

CHEF PRASAD TIFFIN CENTRE

Tiffin or Dabba is an essential and vital aspect of an Indian household. Indians love carrying and consuming home-cooked meals. When young carrying Tiffin to School cooked by our beloved Mothers or when older carrying Tiffin to work and office cooked by our darling wives, Tiffin and home-cooked meals are always a constant. These Dabbas or Tiffin are a lifeline of Indian and the emotions, feelings, love, memories, and the stories these simple metal boxes hold are unparalleled.

Similarly, Dabbawalas are white Kurta and Gandhi cap uniformed tiffin delivery specialists. They supply home cooked food to one of the busiest city and never sleeping city of Mumbai, feeding over 200,000 people a day, daily for the last 150 years. Inspired by the centuries old of Tiffin or Dabbas, these superheroes ensure to keep the human workforce running, who in turn keep the city running.
